CLAPP ASSAILS BILL

Incidentally He Criticises the Attorney General.

INSURGENTS WILL NOT OBEY

Minnesota Senator Praises Theodore Roosevelt and Declares Republican Party Has Drifted from Early Principles—Looks for Harmony in Listening to Voice of People.

Two vigorous attacks were made on the administration railway bill in the Senate yesterday.

Senator Clapp, of Minnesota, an insurgent Republican, condemned it. Much of his speech was devoted to a defense of the insurgent Republicans and to criticism of Attorney General Wickham for his speech made in Chicago recently, in which Mr. Wickham practically read the insurgents out of the party.

The other speech attacking the bill was made by a Democratic Senator, Charles J. Hughes, of Colorado. He pronounced the bill utterly bad, and suggested that the Senate should defeat it.

Clapp Opens Debate.

Declaring that the Republican party had drifted from its early teachings as exemplified by Abraham Lincoln, and portraying Theodore Roosevelt as the greatest man of modern times, Senator Clapp, of Minnesota, opened the debate.

Referring to the recent speech of Attorney General Wickham in Chicago in which he suggested to insurgent Republicans that they had better get out of the party, Senator Clapp invited the head of the Department of Justice to leave the Republican party. We Republicans in the Senate who disagree with the Chicago speech of the Attorney General do not accept his advice. We will not act upon his advice.

"The Attorney General spoke of wise legislation expressed at party councils. How many Republicans have gathered at these party councils? A half dozen Republicans in the Senate does not constitute a party council.

"I would like to know how many Republicans endorsed the party council that framed this bill, nullifying the anti-trust law.

"I do not believe many Republicans joined in the provision that repeals the provision for five days' notice in the granting of injunctions.

"I would like to know the warrant of authority given the Attorney General to read out of the party Republicans who have fought the battles of the G. O. P. for twenty-five years. He will find that he cannot read out of the organization veterans in the ranks because they refuse to swallow blindly legislation recommended by him."

Senator Predicts Harmony.

"Harmony will come to the Republican party," continued Senator Clapp, "when the voice of the people is recognized by leaders in Congress. The Republican party never resided in the White House and neither does it reside in the halls of Congress. It is in the hearts of the American people, and we must return to that old-time theory."

Senator Clapp was not complimentary of President Taft. He poked fun at the utterance accredited to the President, who was quoted as saying that the railway bill should pass Congress "without the crossing of a 't' or the dotting of an 'i'."

Mr. Clapp also expressed his disapproval of the Executive declaration that the passage of the pending bill would be a test of party loyalty.

Concluding, Senator Clapp declared that the people loved the Republican party and were loath to give it up. "But we have reached the parting of the ways," said the Senator. "Either we must listen to the voice of the people and respond to their demands, or retire from power. The signs of times are ominous. Recent events in the East show that."

Senator Hughes insisted that the bill repealed the Sherman anti-trust law so far as it related to railroads and quoted from the testimony of the late Edward H. Harriman to show that the bill gave to men like Mr. Harriman the opportunity they have always been denied under the Sherman anti-trust law, of acquiring and merging the railroads of the country.

In conclusion Senator Hughes said the features of the bill to benefit the public were so few and unimportant that they fat defeating extraordinary.

MARGARET KNOLLY

CONGRESSMAN GARDNER ILL.

Massachusetts Member Going to Johns Hopkins Hospital.

Representative A. P. Gardner, of Massachusetts, was on the floor of the House yesterday for the first time since the 19th of March, when he played a leading role in the big insurrection against Speaker Cannon. Since then he has been in the South, where he went to regain his health. He was obliged to leave in walking, as he is suffering from lumbago and sciatica, causing considerable pain in his back and legs.

On Thursday Mr. Gardner is going to Johns Hopkins Hospital, in Baltimore, for a thorough examination into his condition, and it was on his way there that he stopped off in Washington. Apparently he has lost some of his insolvency, for he voted with the regulars on the railroad bill.

"I feel pretty good except for the pain in my back and legs," said Mr. Gardner. "I have been spending much time out of doors, and in spite of my trouble I have gained in weight."

CADET HAZERS PUNISHED.

West Point Superintendent Imposes Confinement and Extra Duty.

Col. Hugh L. Scott, U. S. A., superintendent of the United States Military Academy at West Point, has imposed confinement and extra duty as punishment upon Cadets R. H. Bodine, E. C. Boykin, and Harold R. Rayner, of the third class who were recently found guilty of hazing under-classes.

Three cadets would have been dismissed under the former hazing law had not a special resolution been passed by Congress empowering Secretary of War Dickinson to punish them according to amended hazing regulations which provided graduated punishment.

All three-cadets will be confined to the barracks and gymnasium and will walk the usual period of punishment duty on Wednesday and Saturday until the corps of cadets goes into camp. Thereafter they will be confined to the camp and will walk the usual punishment tours from 9 until 12 o'clock and from 3 until 5 o'clock daily. Cadets Rayner and Boykin will receive this punishment until June 25, while Bodine's punishment will continue until July 5 next.

Socialist Parade Abandoned.

Berlin, April 26.—The Socialist executive committee has decided that there will be no outdoor demonstrations by the party on May Day, but meetings will be held in the largest halls on behalf of universal suffrage.

YESTERDAY IN CONGRESS.

(APRIL 26, 1910.)

SENATE.

The administration railway bill occupied almost the entire session of the Senate yesterday. Senator Clapp of Minnesota, attacked the bill and defended the insurgent Senators, replying to the speech of Attorney General Wickham in Chicago. Senator Hughes of Colorado also attacked the bill. Senator Hughes replying to Senator Hughes. Bills were passed amending the act to prevent collisions at sea and to regulate the equipment of motor boats. In executive session a number of nominations of postmasters were confirmed.

The Senate adjourned at 5:30 p. m., to meet at 11 o'clock this morning.

HOUSE.

The House had the administration railway bill under consideration yesterday in Committee of the Whole under the five-minute rule. The Commerce Court provision was attacked by the insurgents and Democrats, who failed to defeat it by a tie vote. Radical amendments to the measure were defeated by the regulars by slender margins.

The House adjourned at 5:35 o'clock until today.

were insignificant compared with the benefits conferred on the railroads.

"As a bargain, we are out-traded," said Senator Hughes, in conclusion. "We are supposed to represent the people in this trade. There is only one disposition to be made of the bill in the interest of the people—absolute and unqualified rejection."

TO SELL GOVERNMENT LAND.

Track on Conduit Tunnel to Be Disposed of by House Bill.

According to the terms of a bill introduced in the House yesterday, the Secretary of War is authorized to sell to the highest bidder the land owned by the government lying along the Conduit tunnel above Georgetown. The tract extends from the reservoir near the western line of the District to the filtering tanks.

The bill was offered by Representative Hayes, of California.

ELECTRIC LIGHT INQUIRY.

Congressman Condrey Demands Investigation of District Service.

A resolution was introduced in the House yesterday by Representative Condrey, of Missouri, providing for an investigation into the rates charged for electric current, and the efficiency of the service in the District. It directs that the inquiry shall be made by a special committee composed of six members from both the Senate and House District committees.

The committee is authorized to take testimony, and is directed to report its conclusions to Congress.

TUBERCULOSIS IN DISTRICT.

Bill for a Congressional Investigation Introduced in House.

An investigation of the extent to which tuberculosis is prevalent in the District of Columbia, will be made if a resolution introduced yesterday by Representative Lever, of South Carolina, is adopted. It is similar to one offered a short time ago by Representative Parsons, except that the former was general in scope.

The Lever resolution directs an inquiry into the question of the observance of the pure food law in the District with regard to dairy products.

HOUSE COMMITTEE TO ACT.

Teachers Retirement Fund and Sanitary Inspection Bills To-day.

Two local measures are the special order for consideration by the District of Columbia Committee of the House at its regular weekly meeting to-day. Both probably will be disposed of. One is the Commissioners' bill providing for a teachers' retirement fund. The other is the bill of Representative Olcott, of New York, providing for a national board of sanitary inspection.

Several other measures are pending before the committee which will be taken up if the others are acted upon without a long discussion.

HOPE FOR PLAYGROUNDS.

Conferees May Reach Agreement on District Appropriation Bill.

"There will be another effort made this week to reach an agreement in conference on the District Appropriation bill," said Senator Gallinger, chairman of the Senate District of Columbia Committee, yesterday. "The only serious point at issue is the provision of the House appropriating $17,000 for playgrounds entirely from the revenues of the District. If that were out of the way, the other matters in dispute could be quickly arranged. The bill was sent back to conference by the House on a point of order made against another Senate amendment, but the real difference, of course, is the playgrounds item. I am hopeful of a speedy settlement."

If the conferees cannot reach an agreement this week, the matter will be postponed, and the bill returned to the House in the hope that that body will reconsider its former action and agree to the Senate amendment.

MONTANA JUDGE NOMINATED.

Taft Sends to Senate the Name of Carl Rasch.

President Taft sent to the Senate yesterday the nomination of Carl Rasch, of Helena, to be United States district judge for the district of Montana, to succeed Judge William H. Hunt, who resigned to become justice of the United States Customs Court in Washington.

Rasch is one of the counsel for Secretary Ballinger in the Ballinger-Pinchot investigation.

TENNESSEANS HOLD ELECTION

Constitution Is Adopted by Newly Formed State Society.

Officers were elected and a constitution adopted at a meeting of the Tennessee Society last night in old Masonic Temple. The following officers were elected: James D. Richardson, president; F. J. Garrett, first vice president; Hardee Wyatt, second vice president; Representative R. W. Austin, third vice president; Mrs. I. N. Hammond, secretary; George R. Shields, treasurer; W. T. Watkins, chaplain, and Annie R. Hale, historian.

SENATOR BURROWS IN RACE.

Campaign for Renomination To Be Pushed with Renewed Energy.

Senator J. C. Burrows' friends announced yesterday that he has determined to remain in the race for renomination for the Senate, as the result of the conference he had been holding for several days with prominent Republicans from Michigan.

They admit the reports brought to the Senator have been of a more discouraging character than he had expected. His campaign will be pushed with renewed energy.

Senator Burrows' most formidable opponent is Representative Townsend.

CONVENTION TO-DAY TO NAME TAGGART

Indiana Democrats Largely in His Favor.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 26.—Tom Taggart will be nominated Senator at the Democratic convention to-day, if his victory at the primary of yesterday has no setback, and Gov. Marshall will feel the sting of the machine.

Already it is charged that the Taggart methods were conscienceless, but under any other system he might have obtained a majority of the delegates. As it is, the minority will not have a respectable representation.

This sentiment was expressed by a Democrat in the lobby of the Denison Hotel to-day, and there was general acquiescence. The opinion was unanimous that the primary system enabled Taggart to win a contest in which sentiment was against him.

When the credentials of the delegates selected last night were examined by the county committee to-day, it was found that Taggart had secured 179 delegates out of a total of 183, leaving but four men, whose seats are uncontested, to represent the opposition to Taggart.

CULBERSON TO BE UNOPPOSED.

His Announcement for Re-election Eliminates Gov. Campbell.

Austin, Tex., April 26.—The authoritative announcement received to-day from Senator Charles A. Culberson that he will be a candidate for re-election effectively disposes of the tentative candidacy of Gov. Thomas M. Campbell for that office.

It has been currently reported in Texas during the last few weeks that Mr. Culberson was seriously considering the advisability of not seeking re-election on account of the poor state of his health. In the event of his retirement it was the intention of Gov. Campbell to seek the honor. Now that Mr. Culberson will be a candidate, Mr. Campbell has abandoned his aspiration for the present. He will wait and run against Senator Bailey, his friends say. It is considered unlikely that Mr. Culberson will have an opponent.

CUBAN REBELS SPURN BAIL.

President Offers Terms; Will Establish Military Guard.

Havana, April 26.—The twenty-four leaders of the negro movement and thirty-four others who have been indicted with them for conspiracy to incite rebellion were notified to-day that they would be admitted to bail, the former in the sum of $10,000 each and the latter in $3,000 each. Acting on the advice of counsel, they all declined to give bail.

President Gomez has decided to create a special volunteer military force of 3,500 men, known as the "republican guard." Their term of service will be one year.

While you think of it, telephone your Want Ad. To The Washington Herald, and bill will be sent you at 1 cent a word.

THE JUDGES

All solutions will be referred to four competent and impartial judges, whose decision will be final, and solvers in submitting their solutions must state that they will abide by the decision of the judges.

Should there be, in the opinion of the judges, a tie in the solutions submitted, in point of correctness, artistic neatness, or legibility of name and address, prizes of equal value will be given each.

All contestants will be notified by mail of the result of the contest.

OUR REASONS

We are conducting this Publicity Puzzle Contest for the purpose of bringing before the public in the most possible exact location and appearance of our Washington House. We believe this method to be one of the best and quickest means of accomplishing our object. Every one is invited to participate in this contest, and in doing so no obligation whatsoever or fee of any kind is incurred. All have an equal chance. Cut out the pieces now and see how interesting it is trying to put them together.

Sherman Among Those Who Send Congratulations.

PRAISE FILLS THE MESSAGES

Gov. Marshall Says: "Keen Perception of Truth and Justice." Gov. Fort: "Bench and Bar Congratulated." Gov. Draper: "Delighted." Gov. Glascock: "Best Possible."

Albany, N. Y., April 26.—Telegrams of congratulations have been pouring in upon Gov. Hughes all day and in answer to requests Secretary Robert H. Fuller to-night gave the following from the big pile of messages for publication:

From Vice President Sherman: "I congratulate the State upon your choice as its seventh contribution to the Supreme Court. I congratulate the President on the selection and the people of the country upon your acceptance. I congratulate you upon your preference, which to the scholarly and thoughtful lawyer must be most pleasing."

Gov. Marshall, of Indiana: "I have no doubt you will bring to the discharge of your judicial duties that keen perception of truth and justice so necessary to the preservation of the rights of the people. I congratulate you and every fair-minded America upon your preference."

Michigan People Pleased.

Gov. Warner, of Michigan: "Michigan people pleased at your appointment as justice of the Supreme Court. Accept sincere and hearty congratulations."

Gov. Fort, of New Jersey: "The people, the bench, and the bar of the Republic are to be congratulated upon your appointment to the Supreme Court of the nation."

Gov. Draper, of Massachusetts: "Am delighted that you have accepted appointment to the Supreme bench. Am very sorry to lose you even temporarily from active political service, but the people still have your service in a most important field."

"Best Appointment Possible."

Gov. Glascock, of West Virginia: "Congratulations. I think your appointment to Supreme Court the best that could have been made."

Many other telegrams have been received from all over the country. Ex-Mayor Seth Low, of New York, sent this: "I rejoice in your appointment to Supreme Court. By accepting I think you

Enjoy Your Meals

By Simply Eating a Little Pleasant Tablet After Each of Them.

A Tablet Digests a Meal. Trial Package Free.

When digestion is perfect the food necessary to this process comes naturally to the aid of the stomach. They are of right proportion and do their work speedily and well. When indigestion and dyspepsia are prevalent, these same juices come slowly, if at all, are weak and inefficient, or are filled with strong acids and alkalis.

When such a condition exists each meal is a hardship upon the digestive organs. The meal should strengthen the juices, but on the contrary it weakens them, so that man by the very act of eating causes conditions to arise which of themselves bring him pain and loathing for the next meal.

By eating one of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets you mix the tablet with your saliva and it goes into your stomach a strong, vigorous fluid, many times more powerful than the natural digestive juices. These tablets are made up of natural vegetable and fruit essences and are composed of Hydrastis, Golden Seal, Lactose, Nux, Ascorbic Acid, and Jamaica Ginger. There is no formula, and one grain of it will digest 3,000 grains of food in any stomach. Beside digesting the food it will give the blood the power to finish the digestive fluids, so after a time nature will take care of itself. Though you have no stomach trouble, one of these tablets after each meal is a powerful assistance to nature and is an excellent habit to make.

Go to any drugist and ask his opinion of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. We will send him an answer if he is an honest man. They sell for 50c per package. Send us your name and address and we will send you a trial package by mail free of charge. F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.
